WP(C)No. 23572 OF 2006

Dated this the 24th January, 2007.

JUDGMENT

The petitioner is working as Junior Public Health Nurse Gr.II in the Public Health Centre under the Health Services Department. On verification of the credit particulars shown in the GPF pass book petitioner found that full credit has not been given to amounts subscribed towards GPF. According to her a sum of Rs.17,255/- is not accounted. The said amount represents the pay revision arrears for the period from 3.1997 to 10/1998. She filed representations before the respondents to supply the omission. Having not received any positive response she has approached this Court.

2. In the statement filed on behalf of the third respondent it is admitted that the sum of Rs.17,255/- does not appear to have been credited and that the omission must have happened due to the fault committed by the drawing and disbursing officer.

3. It is for the respondents to find out as to how the omission happened and take appropriate steps in that behalf. As far as the petitioner is concerned, she is entitled to get Rs.17,255/-, credited in her account which amount was deducted from her pay revision arrears and deposited in the GPF.

4. The respondents are directed to enter in the GPF pass book and other relevant records the sum of Rs.17,255/- also as subscription paid by her towards GPF. This shall be done within one month. Steps taken to find out the cause for the omission shall be pursued by the competent among the respondents. With the above direction, the writ petition is disposed of.
